105: MANAGING EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PROGRAMS

MAY 10 (Part 1) & MAY 11 (Part 2), 2022

9 AM—Noon (each day)

CLASS DESCRIPTION

Competitive Management must decide which benefits are most suitable and beneficial for their employees and organizations. This course provides information essential for evaluating and designing cost effective employee benefit programs that meet corporate objectives. Students explore a range of benefit plans and discuss the implications of HRM decision making in choosing benefit plans that balance cost with employee health and financial security. Practical, every day examples of health plan administrative and compliance issues will be reviewed: Overview of health plans; Self-funding/partial self-funding of health plans; Managing health plans/benefit communications; Regulatory compliance/consistency; Patient Protection & Affordable Care Act (PPACA); Placing health plans "out to bid"; Preventive/Loss Control/Cost Containment programs; Voluntary programs; Executive benefits/Discrimination testing/rules; Overview of Retirement programs.

PRESENTER

David Nikssarian, President—Nikssarian Insurance Services

David has proudly served with a commitment to excellence in the Insurance Industry for over 38 years. He and his wife and business partner, Mary, established Nikssarian Insurance Services, Inc. in 2003.

David is a licensed Life and Health Agent since 1982. He is a past President of the Central Coast Chapter of the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors (NAIFA).

Prior to Nikssarian Insurance Services, Inc., David was a Regional Manager for the insurance services division of an agricultural association. In this capacity, David was responsible for seven field offices and provided leadership to a regional staff of 30. He was responsible for hiring, training, and managing seven sales producers, and directly handled an account executive district that grew to become the largest in the organization. Reflecting his commitment to excellence, David was awarded Quality Employee Awards and participated in extensive Total Quality Management Training.

David obtained his Bachelors of Arts in Political Science with an emphasis in Public Administration at California State University of Fresno, where he served as President of the Associated Students. He is an Eagle Scout, the recipient of the Santa Lucia District Award of Merit, and the Silver Beaver Award from the Monterey Bay Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.
