DESCRIPTION

This presentation will focus on recent changes to employment and safety laws that affect your business, including the recent paid sick leave law and changes to the California Family Rights Act. The presentation will also cover recent amendments to the heat illness regulations. This session is designed to identify and address common pitfalls that can put your organization at risk, and participants will learn about the latest regulatory and enforcement activities in California. The speakers will also cover topics to make sure your handbook is up to date for 2015. Bring your questions, we will reserve some time for Q & A at the end of the workshop.
